for an All-Network Quarterly Meeting

The Collaborative Network Council is hosting a virtual all-network quarterly meeting on Tuesday, February 15th from 1:00 – 3:00 p.m.

All network members and partners, both past and present, are invited to participate!

PURPOSE OF THE MEETING

The Network Council will host a meeting each quarter to convene partners from across the network to grow and strengthen Jackson's collective impact efforts. These meetings are designed to support continuous communication, develop and strengthen connections, and establish shared accountability for progress on shared goals and priorities. Updates on backbone activities led by the Network Council and staff will also be provided. Refer to the agenda for full details.

MEETING OBJECTIVES

Participants will:

- Refresh their understanding of Jackson's collective impact network and Shared Measurement System Framework as our common agenda for community change
- Grow their knowledge of action that is being taken to advance equity
- Connect with peers around topics of interest to assist with advancing progress on shared aims
- Be provided with opportunities to provide feedback on the current network model to assist with continuous improvement

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

All network members and partners, both past and present, are invited and encouraged to participate.

Haven't connected with the network in a while? That's ok! This meeting is an excellent opportunity to learn more about the work that is happening and engage in conversation with others that are committed to positively impacting outcomes for Jackson residents.
